*Pool 2:30pm – 3:30pm (Ages 4-18)

Ages 9-12

Tennis 12:00pm – 1:00pm

Golf 1:15pm – 2:15pm
Pool 2:30 – 3:30pm (Ages 4-18)

Golf

- Ages 5-8: An hour program introduces the game to our 5-8 year olds. Emphasizing the basics, this program's purpose includes learning with lots of fun.
- Ages 9-12: An hour program where kids will receive instruction based upon current skill level and learn about etiquette and rules.

Tennis

- Ages 5-8: An hour program will familiarize our young tennis players with the fundamentals of the game, flavored with lots of fun and exercise.
- Ages 9-12: An hour program where kids will receive instruction based upon current skill level.

Pool - Ages 4-18 Pool Youth Power Hour: The Youth Power Hour is designed to be a focused and engaging opportunity for our younger members. Youth Power Hour will offer:

- Multi-Level Group Swim Lessons: Traditional swim lessons, led by experienced swimming instructors. Open to all experience levels (no experience to advanced) ages 4-18. Instruction will follow the American Red Cross week-long intensive curricula.
- Stingray Swim Team Practice. Led by the swim team coaches, swim team participants will get their daily practice. Note: There is no cost for swim team members to participate in the Power Hour practice. All members ages 6-18 with any experience level are welcome to join the swim team. If interested, please contact Cate Solari at olccpool1@gmail.com
- Fun Fridays: Every Friday, all Power Hour participants (Stingrays and Group Lessons) will join in organized and supervised water games and water activities for 30 minutes following their 30 minutes of instruction. Water games and activities are not only a great way to celebrate a week of hard work in the pool, but also allow youth members to get to know each other and make friends across age groups.
